You need to be aware that the duty to make reasonable adjustments will not apply unless we know you have a disability. The policy aims to ensure that no customer, resident or employee is treated less fairly by the Council on the grounds of race, colour, disability, nationality, ethnic or national origin, creed, sex, marital status, age or sexuality. Completion of the Equalities Data Monitoring form will assist us to monitor the effectiveness of this practice.

- EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES MONITORING

As a major employer in the area, we aim to ensure that individuals are selected regardless of any factor other than the ability to do the job. To help us ensure that our Equal Opportunities Policy is fully and fairly implemented (and for no other reason), you are asked to complete the questionnaire enclosed with the application form.

- RECRUITMENT FILES

Recruitment files, including Equal Opportunities monitoring information, will be held for a period of twelve months from the date of appointment.

- BASELINE PERSONNEL SECURITY STANDARD

The Government requires that Council post holders who have access to Public Services Networks (PSN) must be validated to the Baseline Personnel Security Standard (BPSS). The checks required are for identity, nationality and immigration status, employment history (past 3 years) and verification of criminal records, for unspent convictions only.

- REFERENCES

References may be taken up prior to interview unless you indicate otherwise. If you do not want this to take place until a provisional offer of appointment is made you must make this clear on the application form. However, any employment by us will be dependent on satisfactory references. This may cause a delay in the confirmation of your appointment. We will approach your present and/or last employer so please state each referee's relationship to you. Please note that members of your family are not acceptable as referees.

- REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974 & DISCLOSURE & BARRING CHECKS

One of the sections on the application form asks you to provide details of any criminal convictions that you have. You should read the following information, and the guidance notes provided with the application form carefully before doing so. Under the above Act, job applicants do not have to disclose information on certain convictions after a set period of time, i.e. when they become “spent”. If you have an unspent criminal conviction, we will look at it in relation to the job you have applied for before making a decision. We will treat the information you provide in the strictest confidence.

There are specific job categories which are exempt under the provisions of the Act. This means that you must declare “spent” or “unspent” convictions for work in these categories. If you are applying for a job which involves regularly caring for, training, supervising or being in sole charge of persons aged under 18 or vulnerable adults, you MUST disclose all details of ANY caution or criminal offence whether spent or not. Under the Criminal Justice and Court Service Act 2000 it is an offence for an individual who has been disqualified from working with children to knowingly apply for, offer to do or accept or do any work in a ‘regulated activity’.

The Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) carries out all criminal record checks in England and Wales. If you are a successful applicant for a post which is deemed to be a ‘regulated activity’, you will be required to apply for a ‘disclosure’ from this Bureau (i.e. disclosure to your employer of details of any relevant criminal convictions and/or record). Any offer of employment will be subject to a satisfactory disclosure being received. There are three levels of disclosure – standard, enhanced and enhanced with barred list check. If a disclosure is required, your application will be made on-line via the third party organisation employed by the Council to act as counter signatory. You will receive a copy of the disclosure Certificate of which we will ask for a copy. We will also ask you to register for the Update Service which will enable nominated personnel within the Council to periodically check the status of your disclosure at reasonable intervals, the fee for which will be paid by the Council.

- RELATIONSHIPS

You must disclose any personal relationships with a Rushcliffe Borough Councillor or Senior Officer of the Council on the back of the application form.

COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM

The application form is usually the only information we have on a candidate when deciding who to select for interview. It is therefore very important that you take the opportunity to complete your form as fully and concisely as possible based on the information we have given you about the job. You can find our online application form on our website – <http://www.rushcliffe.gov.uk/jobs>. You can also request an application form by emailing our jobs inbox at jobs@rushcliffe.gov.uk.

It is sometimes difficult to determine from an application form how well an applicant meets the criteria that have been identified for successful performance in the job. To make this a more objective process, and to assist us in shortlisting, it would be helpful if you could bear in mind the following suggestions when completing your application form:

- Do a rough draft first. This helps you to avoid making mistakes and allows you to make sure that the information you have given is relevant.

- A job description outlining the main purpose and duties of the job will usually be the main document that is available to you. In this situation you need to identify the skills and experience required for successful performance, and tailor your application accordingly. You may also find other useful information on our website.
- The person specification will give you additional information on the skills, experience, abilities etc. that we are looking for. To complete the application to the best effect, you should demonstrate how you meet each of the criteria identified by drawing on your past and current experience, highlighting the transferable skills and experience you have gained or developed as a result. These should then be put into context by describing specific examples. We cannot make assumptions about your abilities and do not take account of any previous applications you have made.
- Any additional relevant information you would like to give, including outside work interests, would be welcome and will give us a broader picture of you. An A4 Sheet will be sufficient.
- If possible, make a copy of your completed form for future reference.
- Don't send the same form for all jobs you see advertised at Rushcliffe – pay attention to the specific job requirements for the job you are applying for.
- Make sure you return your form to us before the closing date. Applications received after this date will not normally be accepted. If at any time you would like to discuss a particular job in more detail, please do not hesitate to contact the Human Resources Division. They will be able to advise you, or give you the name of an appropriate person to contact, if this has not already been included in the advertisement.

PREPARING FOR THE INTERVIEW

If you have been invited for an interview, here are a few tips that might help you to do your best:

- Prepare yourself – maybe there is more you could find out about the job or the organisation (e.g. visit our website – <http://www.rushcliffe.gov.uk>) or things that you have produced or worked on that you could take along to show the panel, perhaps to support your application.
- Arrive on time – the last thing you want is to feel rushed and harassed when you go into the interview.
- Settle yourself down and make yourself comfortable. When asked a question, give yourself time to think about it before you answer.
- You will be asked questions about: yourself, your experiences, your qualities and skills that you would bring to this job, your application form and probably some questions to test your approach and expertise in a particular area of activity.
- Some interviews may include a test, or ask you to make a presentation. In such cases you will be given the necessary details when invited to attend for interview.
- At the end of the interview, you will be asked if you have any questions - don't be afraid to ask. However, there's no obligation to ask questions so equally don't feel you have to!

It is our aim to ensure that every stage of our recruitment process is fair and properly thought out. We want to ensure that applicants are treated fairly, even if they are not appointed. If you feel you have been unfairly treated, you have the right of complaint. If you wish to take up this right, you must do so in writing to the Human Resources Manager, stating why you feel you have been treated unfairly.
